

Legal Protections

REFERENCE	DESCRIPTION
California Health and Safety Code	Section 114433- No food facility that donates food as permitted by Section 114432 shall be subject to civil or criminal liability or penalty for violation of any laws, regulations, or ordinances regulating the labeling or packaging of the donated product or with respect to any other laws, regulations, or ordinances, for a violation occurring after the time of the donation.
California Civil Code (See back for more information)	Section 1714.25 (a)- Except for injury resulting from negligence or willful act in the preparation or handling of donated food, no food facility that donates any food that is fit for human consumption at the time it was donated to a nonprofit charitable organization or a food bank shall be liable for any damage or injury resulting from the consumption of the donated food. The immunity from civil liability provided by this subdivision applies regardless of compliance with any laws, regulations, or ordinances regulating the packaging or labeling of food, and regardless of compliance with any laws, regulations, or ordinances regulating the storage or handling of food after the donation of the food.
California Food and Agriculture Code	Section 58505- Except for injury resulting from gross negligence or willful act, no county or agency of a county established pursuant to this chapter and no person who donates any agricultural product shall be liable for any injury, including, but not limited to, injury resulting from the ingesting of such agricultural product, as a result of any act, or the omission of any act, in connection with any product pursuant to this chapter.
United States Code, Bill Emerson Good Samaritan Food Donation Act	Title 42, Chapter 13A, Section 1791- (c) Liability for damages from donated food and grocery products (1) Liability of person or gleaner: A person or gleaner shall not be subject to civil or criminal liability arising from the nature, age, packaging, or condition of apparently wholesome food or apparently fit grocery product that the person or gleaner donates in good faith to a nonprofit organization for ultimate distribution to needy individuals.

California AB
1219, California
Good Samaritan
Food Donation Act

CA AB 1219 expands the protections of the Federal Good Samaritan Act to persons and gleaners and authorizes permitted food donors to engage in direct donation. It also adds liability protection to the donation of food that is fit for consumption that has exceeded the labeled shelf life date.